

11th Grade Academic Package $2,500

The package provides up to 8 hours* of academic advising and college planning for rising 11th grade students, beginning in June 2025. The hours include meeting time, preparation time (document review, research, etc.), and follow-up agenda. The package is tailored to fit the individual student's needs, but typically includes:

- Tailored advice on individual curriculum choices, extracurricular activities, summer plans, and choosing teacher recommenders
- Setting goals and creating study skills for each academic subject and semester/quarter
- Creating an SAT/ACT/AP test prep timeline, tailored to the individual's schedule
- Research on best-fit colleges and universities for the individual student
- Detailed review of current college list/suggestions for other colleges to consider
- Advice on scheduling campus tours and visits
- Potential early (ED and EA) application strategies based on current admissions data
- Brainstorming, editing, and revising preliminary drafts of the college essay

*Any time spent beyond the 8 hours will be billed at the hourly rate of $350.

10th Grade Academic Package
$1,900

The package provides up to 6 hours* of academic advising and college planning for rising 10th grade students, beginning in June 2025. The hours include meeting time, preparation time (document review, research, etc.), and follow-up agenda. The package is tailored to fit the individual student's needs, but typically includes:

- Tailored advice on individual curriculum choices, extracurricular activities, and summer plans
- Setting goals and creating study skills for each academic subject and semester/quarter
- Quarterly check-in meetings to ensure the student is meeting goals
- Creating an SAT/ACT/AP test prep timeline, tailored to the individual's schedule
- Research on best-fit colleges and universities for the individual student
- Creation of preliminary college list/suggestions for colleges to consider
- Advice on scheduling campus tours and visits

*Any time spent beyond the 6 hours will be billed at the hourly rate of $350.

9th Grade Academic Package
$1,200

The package provides up to 4 hours* of academic advising and college planning for rising 9th grade students, beginning in June 2025. The hours include meeting time, preparation time (document review, research, etc.), and follow-up agenda. The package is tailored to fit the individual student's needs, but typically includes:

- Tailored advice on individual curriculum choices, extracurricular activities, and summer plans
- Setting goals and creating study skills for each academic subject and semester/quarter
- Quarterly check-in meetings to ensure the student is meeting goals
- Creating an SAT/ACT/AP test prep timeline, tailored to the individual's schedule

*Any time spent beyond the 4 hours will be billed at the hourly rate of $350.