

12th Grade Comprehensive Package $8,000

The package provides up to 25 hours* of consulting strategy, detailed application review, and extensive essay support for rising seniors, beginning in June 2025. The hours include meeting time, preparation (document review, admissions research, etc.), and follow-up (essay-editing, application timelines, email reminders). The package is tailored to fit the individual student's needs, but typically includes:

- Building and refining a balanced college list
- Advising on test prep, curriculum choices, teacher recommendations, and college visits
- Devising multiple potential early application (ED and EA) application strategies based on the most current admissions data
- Brainstorming, editing, revising, and polishing the Common Application's personal statement and many supplemental college essays
- Preparing students for admissions interviews

*Any time spent beyond the 25 hours will be billed (with client's consent) at the hourly rate of $350.
