

12th Grade Essay & Application Package
$3,200

The package provides up to 10 hours* of essay and application support for rising seniors. The hours include meeting time, preparation time (document review, research, etc.), and time spent proofreading, editing, and improving upon the student's personal statement and many supplemental essays. The package is tailored to fit the individual student's needs, but typically includes:

- Brainstorming for the personal statement and various supplemental essays
- Extensive essay editing, revising, and proofreading to ensure the best writing quality
- Detailed review of the Common Application and individual college applications

*Any time spent beyond the 10 hours will be billed at the hourly rate of $350.
